

PAUSE · REFLECT · DISCUSS ·

Colonisation, Power, and Promises

What stood out to you about how power was used in this part of the story?

Representation and “Fair” Rules

Where did you notice rules that looked fair but didn’t lead to fair outcomes?

Parihaka

Which part of the Parihaka story affected you most, and why?

Resistance and Control (Dog Tax / Maungapōhatu)

What do these stories say about how the state responds when it is challenged?

Memory, Silence, and Harm

Why do you think these histories were ignored or minimised for so long?

Dawn Raids

What does this story reveal about who is seen as “belonging” when times get hard?

Looking Forward

What’s one idea from this video that you’re still thinking about or might act on?